

Deaf Culture Question of the Week – May 16 - 20, 2011
Bill Newell, Principal Washington School for the Deaf

Welcome interpreters working in educational settings from the edterp listserv to Deaf Culture Question of the Week. Carol Carrothers asked that I add your listserv group to this weekly email. I hope you will enjoy this edition. For past editions going back to January 2008 visit our WSD website.

Which of these schools for the deaf is located on an island?

- a) Delaware School for the Deaf
- b) Florida School for the Deaf
- c) Governor Baxter School for the Deaf (Maine)
- d) Rhode Island School for the Deaf

Scroll down for the answer.

Answer: “c” – Governor Baxter School for the Deaf is located on Falmouth Island near the city of Portland, ME. See a map of the location of the school here:
